

Privacy Policy

At Latch Lactation Consulting we are committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of our clients. We understand that the information shared with us during lactation consultations is personal and sensitive, and we take great care to protect that information.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

We collect personal information from our clients in order to provide lactation consultation services. This information may include contact information, medical history, and information about the clients breastfeeding experience. We use this information to provide personalized lactation services and to communicate with our clients about their care.

We do not share or sell any personal information to third parties. Only as required by law.

Security of Personal Information

We take appropriate security measures to protect personal information against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

Access to Personal Information

Clients have the right to access their personal information and request corrections if they believe it to be inaccurate. To request access to or correction of your personal information please contact us.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this privacy policy from time to time to reflect changes to our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons.
